

FAIR LOST OVER $500 THIS YEAR

Treasurer's Report is Read But Meeting of Stockholders is Postponed For Two Weeks.

POOR ATTENDANCE IS CAUSE
Postponement Suggested Because Important Question is up—Threats of Receivership Heard.

Due to poor attendance, the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Rush County Fair association, scheduled for this afternoon, was postponed until two weeks from today.

Though regular meeting did not take place, the reports of the treasurer, J. V. Young, and the secretary, J. Q. Thomas, were read and a statement of the indebtedness of the association made.

The postponement was made on motion of Lon Link. He said that since there were two hundred and forty stockholders of the association and only twenty present, and since the financial condition of the association was in bad straits and threats had been made to throw the association into the hands of a receiver, it would be best to postpone the meeting.

Treasurer J. V. Young's report showed that there was $104.81 in the treasury and some vouchers were still unpaid. The report included $600 borrowed by the association this year, which reveals that the fair this year lost $500, not counting the vouchers still unpaid.

The treasurer's report showed a balance in the treasury of $9.00. The variance in the balance is due to the fact that some vouchers have been issued by the secretary which have not been paid by the treasurer.

The secretary also made a statement to the stockholders that the association is now indebted in the sum of $3,811.

New directors were to be elected today, but that matter, as well as the future policy of the association, will be settled at the forthcoming meeting.

When Mr. Link put the motion in which he asserted that threats had been made to throw the association into the hands of a receiver, he said that the secretary should be instructed to notify each one of the stockholders individually that important business would be transacted.

Farmers were busy with fall work, which was one reason assigned for the poor attendance. Lack of interest in the fair is also given as another cause.

The report of Treasurer James V. Young was as follows:
Chargeable as per last report ----- $ 112.09
Received from sale of tickets ----- 3,741.00
Received from J. Q. Thomas, secretary ----- 2,053.00
Received from Noah Tryon, Supt. of grounds ----- 526.63
Received, miscellaneous ----- 101.00
Received from note ----- 600.00

Total receipts ----- $7,005.72
Expenditures as per vouchers attached ----- $7,028.91

BIDS FOR BUILDING.

Washington, Ind., Oct. 30.—Bids were opened here today for the construction of a new postoffice at Seymour, Ind. The building is expected to cost approximately $48,000.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forry have returned home, after attending the Teachers Association in Indianapolis.

B.W. RILEY IMPROVED TODAY

Fell Out of Wagon at His Farm and Severely Cut and Bruised.

B. W. Riley, who fell out of his wagon at the Riley farm last evening, was much improved today and it was expected that he would recover rapidly. It was first thought that he was seriously injured because he complained of inward pains. Mr. Riley lost his balance and toppled over, severely bruising his body and cutting his face badly. As soon as he regained his senses, he drove to his home here. Members of his family were badly frightened when he came home, his face and clothes smeared with blood. On account of his age, it was feared last night that his injuries might prove serious.

IS ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT ON WIFE

Thomas Alzman Will be Tried Tonight Before Mayor Bebout—His Story of Trouble.

MRS. ALSMAN BADLY CUT UP

Thomas Alzman will be tried tonight on charges of assault and battery and surety of peace before Mayor Bebout. Alzman was arrested late Friday afternoon at his home in East Eighth street after the neighbors had called the police, claiming that Alzman was about to kill his wife. He entered a plea of not guilty last night and was released on bond.

The neighbors stated to the police that family fights at the Alzman home had been frequent and they were getting tired of the racket. It was stated that Alzman threw his wife through a window. The police found one window smashed and Mrs. Alzman's arms were both cut. Alzman claims that his sister-in-law has been making all the trouble.

Alzman today filed charges of provoke and malicious trespass against his sister-in-law, Flora Williams, whom he accuses of causing the trouble, but she has not yet been arraigned.

TAXES STILL UNPAID AMOUNT TO $45,000

County Treasurer's Office Opened Today With Big Collection to be Made by Tuesday.

MONDAY WILL BE LAST DAY

At the opening of business this morning in the county treasurer's office a total of $45,000 remained to be paid on the fall installment of taxes. This $45,000 had to be paid today and Monday and the force at the office was hopeful that the amount would be taken in and thus have a small delinquent list.

A total of $18,000 was collected yesterday and the rush started again early this morning. It was estimated that today's tax collections would be the heaviest of the entire period and thus leave only a small sum for the last and final day which is Monday. The collections this week at the office have been exceedingly heavy because many have put off payment of their taxes until the last moment.

TO STOP SALE OF DISEASED HOGS

Campaign to Endorse Law is Instituted by Dr. H. E. Barnard, State Drug Commissioner.

LETTER TO HEALTH OFFICIALS
They and Mayors are Requested to Co-operate to Prevent Cholera Animals Being Sold.

Believing that there have been flagrant violations of the law prohibiting the offering of cholera hogs at public or private sales, Dr. H. E. Barnard, Indiana state food and drug commissioner, has issued a letter to all county health officers and a similar one to all Indiana mayors, urging them to co-operate with the state health board to prevent such sales and calling upon them to notify the department of such violations.

Dr. Barnard hopes through this campaign to stop the practice of selling diseased hogs and also believes that the measures will greatly assist in stamping out the disease which is generally reported throughout the state.

So far as known there have been few violations of the law in this county and none of them willful. In several cases, it is reported, hogs that have been sold have afterwards developed cholera but the presence of the disease was not known to the original owners. Precautions have been taken at all the public sales held in this county since the disease became prevalent to prevent it from spreading to unaffected areas. Farmers who attend many of the sales say they believe the presence of cholera in the county has had an effect upon the hog sales but say that the owners are always careful about placing hogs that even have been exposed to cholera on the market.

It is said that there has been a lack of funds to prosecute under the law but Dr. Barnard is authority for the statement that his department now is amply able to prosecute all such violations and that he has determined to stop this practice.

Dr. Barnard said in his letters that he had advised buyers and shippers that receipt at any stock yards or market of hogs suffering from cholera will be accepted as prima facie evidence that the animals were diseased when shipped. Penalties for the shipment of such diseased animals are provided under Indiana statutes.

The letter of Barnard to the health officers followed a conference between Dr. Nelson, state veterinarian, and Barnard, and it then became known that the hog cholera situation in Indiana is the worst in recent years.

Stories that are almost unbelievable were told by Dr. Nelson of the shipment of diseased hogs to the Indianapolis market and stock yards. One incident he related was of a shipment of sixty-two hogs to the Indianapolis yards some days ago. Inspection by state, city and government agents is counted on to prevent diseased meat from getting to the public.

Dr. Barnard's letter probably sounded the first gun in the campaign of publicity which will be carried on against the diseased meat conditions. Conditions probably will affect the market price of pork soon, was the opinion of Dr. Nelson.

Dr. Barnard's letter to health agents follows:

"We are in the midst of the worst hog cholera epidemic that has ever visited the state, and many thousands of hogs are being destroyed."

NO DESTRUCTION TO BE TOLERATED

Police Will Have Plenty of Assistance Tonight and Will Conduct "Safe and Sane" Hallowe'en.

MANY PARTIES ARE PLANNED
Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, Dancing Pavilion Will be Scene of Merry Festivities.

The genuine Hallowe'en is tomorrow, but since that day is Sunday the celebration will take place tonight. The police are going to see to it that the celebration is not the rowdy, destructive kind that is generally the rule. The special police which have been serving during the fall festival and horse show week will be on the job tonight, stationed throughout the residence part of the district to see that property is not damaged.

Many Hallowe'en parties are in prospect and most of the young people are preparing to make merry by donning grotesque costumes and appearing on the streets. Many will take advantage of the opportunity to have a good time by attending the masked dance which will be given by the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, at the dancing pavilion in front of the K. of P. building. The pavilion has been up all week for the fall festival and horse show.

But all the boys and girls in this city, both young and old, who have been saving up a little corn to throw or who have a little innocent mischief in their systems that they wish to cast off, will be "Johnny-on-the-spot" Saturday night. The city officials want every one to have the time of his life, if they work no injury to anyone else, but when their mischief gets out of bounds they may expect to hear the police call "foul ball."

The officers hold that each person old enough to celebrate is also old enough to know what an innocent amusement is, and anything that is really harmless in every way will not be molested by the officers. A large number of Hallowe'en socials are already being held throughout the city and country and a larger number yet will be held Saturday night. Many of them will be masquerade parties and, taken altogether, the night will be a time which the old and young will celebrate with a little frolic.

A number of merchants have taken advantage of Hallowe'en to attractively decorate their display windows. In several stores masks, and other Hallowe'en supplies are in evidence. During the last week there have been a number of parties and other social events are planned tonight and Saturday.

FIRE VICTIMS ARE BURIED

Funeral of Seventeen Burned at St. John's School Held Today.

(By United Press.)
Peabody, Mass., Oct. 30.—Seventeen, little white coffins stood end to end at the rail of St. John's church today when funeral services were held for the victims of the fire that swept St. John's Parochial school Thursday.

Cardinal O'Connell officiated. Business was suspended and the church was filled to overflowing. Hundreds gathered in the church yard.

—Mrs. Jacob Myers went to Brookville today to visit with relatives and friends.

Arizona Frank Has Five Years to Circle Globe Horseback.

"Arizona Frank," who is traveling around the world, riding a pony and leading a burro, arrived here late yesterday afternoon, coming from Connersville. "Arizona Frank" states that he left New York on June 21 and has five years in which to complete the trip. He claims that he is making the trip to show the value of the burro as a pack animal. He is traveling under the auspices of the International Horse and Mule association. Under the terms of his agreement he is to use the same burro during the entire trip.

WOMAN HEADS THE INDIANA TEACHERS

Miss Anna Willson, Principal of Crawfordsville High School, Elected President.

RECOMMENDATIONS ARE MADE

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 30.—Miss Anna Willson, principal of the Crawfordsville high school, was today elected president of the State Teachers' association. The election was made unanimous on the motion of Miss Belle O'Hair, defeated candidate for the nomination.

The entire list of nominations announced last night the nominating committee was successful.

Resolutions recommended today that the attendance requirements of teachers of county and city and town superintendents and the school supervisors be the same and that the convention be held a week before or a week following the October examinations.

JUDGE SPARKS ON BENCH HERE TODAY

Grants Divorce to George Wolfe on Payment of Costs and Rules in Other Cases.

REAL ESTATE ORDERED SOLD

Judge Will M. Sparks, who has been acting as special judge in the Wayne circuit court for two weeks, was on the bench here today and acted in several cases.

In the petition of Alice Leisure, administratrix of the estate of Arthur O. F. Leisure, against John C. Leisure and others, to sell real estate, Judge Sparks granted the petition and ordered the land sold at private sale.

The case of Bertha Teynes and Stella Platt against Lon H. Mull, executor of the estate of Nancy Miller, deceased, Ida M. Clingman and Mary E. Edmondson, to contest the will of Mrs. Miller, was sent to Shelby county on a change of venue and ten days was allowed to perfect the change.

Judgment was rendered for the plaintiff in the sum of $350 and costs in the case of Otis S. Johnson against John A. Gray. A jury returned a verdict allowing that sum in Johnson's suit for damages, alleging malicious prosecution.

George Wolfe was today granted a divorce from Sarah Alice Wolfe on payment of the costs.

HE WANTS GOOD FARM AND WIDOW

Lovice Lovelace Writes to Richmond Mayor About "Some" of Things he Would Enjoy.

SAYS RUSHVILLE IS HIS HOME

Inquiry at Postoffice Fails to Reveal Who "Mr. Lovelace" Might Be—Widows Beware.

A communication signed by Lovice Lovelace giving Rushville as his home, has been received by the mayor of Richmond, in which Lovelace asks for only a wife and a farm, especially the farm. The man's name is not in the city directory here and inquiry at the postoffice failed to locate him. In his letter to Mayor Robbins of Richmond he wants a wealthy widow with a fertile farm. The letter follows: Mr. Mayor, Dear Sir:

With pleasure I shall write and ask you for a favor which I hope you will gladly grant me and wish to thank you in advance for the same. Dear Mr. Mayor, I am anxious to correspond with some nice young widow who is located on a farm and needs the help of a young man.

I am of Irish-American parentage and do not drink; a member of a church and I am all alone in this world. I have a college education and wish to meet some one who has a farm and has no one to help her. She must be of American birth and educated.

I am 28 years of age and was reared in Tennessee. Have red hair, brown eyes and fair complexion. Five feet, seven inches tall. Weight 140 pounds. I am interested in poultry farming and have worked in cities throughout the state and now wish to find some one who is willing to come forth and offer this young man a fair chance to make someone happy. She must not be over thirty years of age and love the lure of out of door life. I have no relatives living and as things are very dull in my profession I would prefer to secure a place with some one who would appreciate a Christian boy as a life companion.

I have no photo to send and as I am not located permanently will get mail addressed to Sergeant McNally, Richmond, Ind., police headquarters.

Dear ladies, if you are lonely and wish for a faithful and helping hand on the farm why here is your chance as I am willing if you are and I am not a wealthy man and I will show myself to be trustworthy. So if you mean business why get ready as leap year is nearly here. Please send me your photo in your first note. With best wishes for success

SAYS ENGLAND IS SLOW WITH HER AIDFormer Premier of Serbia Declares*Unless British Hurry, They*Will be Too Late*IS NOT CALLING FOR HELP

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, Oct. 30.—"Serbia" asks favors from nobody. All she wants is fair play. She expects the allies to do their full duty by her. France is doing this already. Doubtless England intends to do likewise but she is too slow. Unless she hurries her aid will come too late."

Thus Milenko Vestnich, former premier of Serbia and present Serbian minister in Paris, summed up the Balkan situation today in an interview granted exclusively to the United Press. He has just returned from Serbia and is familiar with all the existing conditions.

"I do not wish to be interpreted," he added, "as calling for help. It is not in the Serbian peoples' nature to do this. Nor do I say what I do in a spirit of criticism. I am speaking plainly for the allies good generally."

SUIT AGAINST SHERIFF

Alberta M. Walker Demands Possession of Cows and a Horse.

Alberta M. Walker, wife of A. P. Walker, formerly of near this city, today brought suit against Vorhees Cavitt, as sheriff of Rush county, for $100 damages. She demands possession of four jerseys and a gray mare, alleged to be held illegally by the sheriff and asserted in the complaint to be worth $500. She states they were not taken as a tax, assessment or fine pursuant to a statute and that they were not seized under execution or attachment. No cause was assigned for the sheriff holding them.

ands of hogs suffering from cholera are being sold, slaughtered and used for food, in every case in violation of law and of common decency. The situation is serious, and so long as hog cholera is generally prevalent your market and butchers are bound to receive diseased animals unless unusual efforts are made to exclude them.

"I have advised buyers and shippers that the receipt at any stock yards or market of hogs suffering from cholera will be accepted as prima facie evidence that the hogs were diseased when shipped and that the shipment was made in violation of Chapter 135, Acts 1913. See also Red Book, Page 117, Paragraph 2455.

"Whenever you know of shipments of diseased animals advise me by wire, giving name of shipper and destination. Whenever you believe diseased hogs have been shipped or killed, file information with the prosecuting attorney. Notify your butcher not to buy diseased animals under penalty of $500. The shipment, sale and killing of diseased animals must be stopped and we count on your efficient co-operation to this end."

The letter sent to mayors of the state was very similar to the one sent to health officers.

SEVEN TAKE EXAMINATION

This is First Test Under New Law Passed in January.

Seven prospective teachers took the examination for a license to teach today. The examination is the first under the new law, which provides that examinations can be held every month starting in October and continuing until May. Heretofore no examination was held in October and the number taking the examination came up to expectations, according to Superintendent George. The examination was held in the office of the superintendent instead of in the examination room, owing to small number of the applicants.

RALSTON APPROVES BALL CASE VERDICTGovernor Upholds Finding of Court*Martial That Sergeant of I. N.*G. Was Not Guilty.*PRIVATE DOWELL SHOT BY HIM

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 30.—Governor Ralston gave his approval yesterday to a finding of not guilty returned by a court-martial composed of officers of the Indiana National Guard in the case of Sergt. Edwin C. Ball of Indianapolis, who was charged with manslaughter.

The court-martial made its finding six weeks ago, but the Governor, who went over the evidence carefully, withheld his approval until yesterday.

Sergt. Ball, while a member of the provost guard of the 1913 National Guard encampment, shot and killed Walter Dowell, a private of a Madison, (Ind.) company, who was escaping after having been arrested for having liquor in his possession.

The judge of a civil court held that Ball should be prosecuted by the state authorities, but, after a long delay in fixing a date for his trial, a new judge of the court allowed the case to be dropped. The military authorities then stepped in and disposed of the case. The action of the Governor brings the case to a close. The Governor prepared the following statement:

"There is some doubt as to whether the Governor is required to take any action, either approving or disapproving the finding in the case, but since the accused has been once put in jeopardy, and has been tried and acquitted by the court-martial, and in order that there may be no injustice done him in making the record in this case, the finding of the court martial is approved. The prisoner, Edwin C. Ball, is discharged."

TIM AND HIS WIFE UP AGAIN

She Places Two Charges Against McGrath—He is Fined on One.

Tim McGrath and his wife again aired their troubles in police court this afternoon. This time Mrs. McGrath charged her husband with assault and battery and public intoxication. The former charge was dismissed and McGrath was fined five dollars and costs and sentenced to sixty days at the penal farm on the latter charge. The sentence was suspended by Mayor Bebout pending good behavior.

Amusements

Comedy will be featured at the Gem theater tonight. "Lizzie and the Beauty Contest," a two reeler, offers a mess of fun all rolled up into two long films. Eddie Lyons, Victoria Ford (Lizzie) and Lee Moran will have the leading parts. Hank Mann and Gertrude Selby will be seen in "Gertie's Joy Ride" tonight. For Monday the Gem offers Billie Ritchie, the famous comedian, and Louise Orth in a two reel comedy, "Vendetta in a Hospital." Tuesday the sixth chapter in "The Broken Coin" and Wednesday for matinee and night the Gem will put on a big five-act drama, "Just Jim" a powerful story that pulls at the heart strings.

Comedy and drama will be combined on the Princess program for the Saturday evening theater-goers. Leah Bird, Manrice Costello and Donald Hall, the celebrated trio, will be seen to excellent advantage in "The Dawn of Understanding." It is a pathetic story in which a baby's photograph plays an important part and is responsible for bringing together a long separated couple. "She Took a Chance" is a laughable comedy, in which Kate Price and William Shea will have the principal parts. A big six-act, feature production will be shown Monday, afternoon and night Mrs. Leslie Carter will be seen in "Du Barry."

Society News

Mrs. Buford Winship will entertain the Jolly Dozen tonight with a masked party.

The Elite club will not meet for two weeks. The next meeting was to have been held Monday with Mrs. Sarah Giffin.

A call meeting of Tri Kappa will be held at the home of Mrs. Earl Moore in North Harrison street Monday afternoon at two o'clock.

The Ladies Aid society of the St. Paul's M. E. church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Homer Powell, corner of Seventh and Morgan streets, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Powell will be assisted by Mrs. Lafara and Mrs. W. P. Elder.

That seal of approval means much to you in the purchase of clothing and furnishings. That has been my hobby for years—absolute satisfaction ahead of any money consideration. I much prefer your good will than to take your money for something that would not be satisfactory until you wear it out—never an eye-sore as long as you have it. My sales in Made-to-Order Suits and Overcoats bears out my hobby, as 80 per cent of my customers are repeaters year after year—truly, "It's the man who knows that wears my clothes." The same thing holds good in my hats, underwear, neckwear, shirts and other men's furnishings. You're not too late to have that measure taken now—weather man says "Cold wave" coming—your summer suit will have to go and you will want a Balmacaan to finish up your outfit.

Betker's Special Hats for $2.00

I have just received my special make of hats direct from the factory. I wanted a hat that had quality in the material, quality in the trimmings and quality in the styles—something a little better than you get elsewhere—and to sell for the popular price of $2.00. These hats had quality put in them from start to finish—regardless of the profit to be had in selling them for $2.00. If you're already supplied, come in anyway and see this wonderful line of hats—you'll want to see them whether you buy now or later. I couldn't begin to tell you in print what it takes to make a hat meet my ideas of

Not Diplomatic Victory

The moves in the new war theatre in the Balkans have profoundly stirred pro-Ally circles and it is notable that the ablest of the pro-Ally newspapers frankly admits the seriousness of the situation, with scant concern for English sensibilities, pointing out the probability of establishing a Teutonic thoroughfare to Constantinople, the possibility of forcing Russia to a separate peace, and menacing of the British empires in Egypt and India. But after marshalling these facts with force, admitting the possibility of German victory the reviewer brushes his own arguments aside and dismisses all his fears as having no more basis than the "imaginative audacity" of the Teutons.

People familiar with Balkan conditions are not surprised at the developments in favor of the Central Powers and against the Allies, for it has never been a question of sentiment with the Balkan states but of selfishness. Each has long cherished nationalistic aims, each has something to get, each has watched to see which of the battling groups was likely to win, and the action of Bulgaria is merely a recognition that the Central Powers are winning. Seeing a strong power arising, the Bulgarians have thrown their lot with them, and it is not unthinkable that other lesser powers will do likewise. In short the action of Bulgaria is not a diplomatic victory for Germany, is not a diplomatic defeat for Great Britain, but is a consequence reached through the achievements of armies.

Foreigners Get Benefits

Duty free goods continue to pour into the country. The value of imports for the week ending October 9, 1915, at the thirteen principal customs districts of the United States, was $32,364,630, on which duty was collected to the amount of $3,691,113 or an average ad valorem of 11.4 per cent, compared with the annual average ad valorem of 17.6 per cent for the fiscal year 1913, under the Republican tariff law, a law which gave adequate protection to American industries and labor, and handed the Democratic party a handsome Treasury surplus with which to begin business. Democratic inefficiency and extravagance have changed that surplus into a large deficit. Foreign producers are reaping the benefits of a free trade tariff law, and Secretary McAdoo is at his wit's ends to devise methods for patching up the leaks in the Treasury reservoir. Meanwhile the cost of living does not decrease, as was promised by the Democrats.

The public is ready to hear of the likes and fancies of the lady who is to preside in the White House. She really is a very difficult person for fashion to follow. When she picked out a dull green cloth for her traveling gown, the shade was named "Bolling Green," and the mills began working overtime to meet the demand for this color. But now that Mrs. Galt is decking herself in various archaic hues in her evening gowns, her imitators are in despair.

Chicago has produced another literary genius in the person of one Charles Werner, who thusly describes his wife in his bill for divorce: "She is an uncultured woman of the shallow, hair brained, pin head, Calamity Jane type; large, muscular bony and beefy; she is some athlete, having the activities of a Corbett, the ferocious temper of a tiger, the strength of an ox, and the reason of an ass."

We always admire the man who speaks well of this town, and his neighbors, and his friends, and who is slow to speak ill of other people. We of to-day are so prone to speak hastily and without thought of consequences that it is a relief to find one occasionally who considers the effect of his words before they are uttered. Such men are more than an asset to any town.

Even the most procrastinating man on earth can lower himself into a dining room chair right on the dot.

Chicago has 20,702 Y. M. C. A. members, and yet it took about forty years to screw down that Sunday lid.

If the European governments want to recoup their losses rapidly we humbly suggest a monopoly on the movies.

If you have a clean past you need not worry, over the misfortunes of today. Your record will carry you through.

In all the world there is no man so wise but what in some things he is foolish.

When a man is a man the world will know it without his advertising the fact.

Current Comments

Mr. Clark's Cradle Roll

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat)

Champ Clark essayed the role of prophet in his speech on Clark day at St. Joseph. No one questions his belief in the Democratic party. Being honest, he could not overlook the fact that the Democratic victory in 1912 was a fluke. He knew that Mr. Wilson got 1,300,000 fewer votes than Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt and that he fell short of Mr. Bryan's 1908 vote, 110,000, notwithstanding the growth in population, the enfranchisement of the women of Washington and California and the admission of Arizona and New Mexico. The combined vote of the Republicans and Progressives was also short, 74,000 less than Mr. Taft got in 1908, due to so many disgusted Republicans having pronounced a plague on both the factions.

The only comfort Mr. Clark could offer was that the young men who were on the cradle roll in 1896 will vote the Democratic ticket next time. But there have been other cradle rolls. Every election since 1896 has had its crop of first voters. But the Democratic vote was smaller in 1912 than in 1896, although the population has increased by 23,000,000, three States were admitted and women of two States enfranchised. At every successive election the Republican vote grew larger, being 7,104,779 in 1896, 7,207,923 in 1900, 7,623,486 in 1904 and 7,678,908 in 1908. The Democrats at no election since have equaled the 1896 vote. Why does Mr. Clark think that the young voters in 1916, will be more unsophisticated than those in 1900, 1904, 1908 and 1912? At no election since 1912 have the Democrats gained. Where were the young voters who became of age in 1913 and 1914? The Republicans will get their full share of young voters, and some who were young in years in 1912 are old in experience with Democratic Administrations now.

HOOSIER HISTORY

Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission

Morton Enters The Law

Morton left college in 1845 to engage in a n active campaign for the hand of Lucinda M. Burbank of Centerville. They were married in May of that year. At about the same time he began the study of law in the office of John S. Newman of Centerville, who took him into partnership within a year. With the legal lights of the state, such as Julian, Johnson, Test, Raridan and Mellett, collected in Centerville, the young attorney found the competition strong. By persevering, painstaking work he forged steadily ahead, and in 1852, when twenty nine years old, was elected circuit judge of a Whig District by a Democratic State Assembly.

POLICE DOG SAVED

Twilight Sleep Used With Great Success to Treat Valuable Animal For Sore Ear

SHOWS NO SIGN OF ANY PAIN

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Oct. 30.—Sherlock, terror to fleeing burglars and one of the most efficient police dogs on the canine staff of the New York Police department, submitted quietly to a painful operation a few days ago under the new "twilight sleep" method. Sherlock never whimpered or showed a disposition to bite, although he was not unconscious.

Sherlock suffered a bruise on his ear while chasing a burglar about a month ago, which developed into so bad a cyst that the dog valued at $1,000 seemed unfit for further service.

The operation, according to Dr. Alfred Oberle, of the Society of Prevention of Cruelty to animals, who performed it, appears to be highly successful and Sherlock will be back on duty in a few weeks.

This is not the first time "twilight sleep" has been used on animals by the society. Horses, dogs and cats alike submit quietly to major operations without having their vitality impaired by the usual anesthesia. Dr. Oberle is convinced that "twilight sleep" will be of considerable benefit to veterinary surgery.

Dr. Oberle has performed major operations on horses in "twilight sleep," the horses standing up, not hobbled or restrained. Without the "twilight sleep" the operation would have been exceedingly painful.

State Department Hears That Revolutionary Leader's Men Were Defeated Twice in Day

OPPOSITE DOUGLAS, ARIZONA

(By United Press.)

Washington, Oct. 30.—Fighting has already begun between Carranza and Villa troops near Aguas Prieta, opposite Douglas, Arizona, according to a wire to the state department today.

Three hundred Villista troops were attacked and dispersed yesterday by General Calles, outposts south of Aguas Prieta. Another Villa patrol west of Aguas Prieta was completely wiped out by the Carranzistas.

Thousands have this disease—and don't know it

You may be afflicted with that dread disease of the teeth, pyorrhea, and not be aware of it. It is the most general disease in the world! The germ which causes it inhabits every human mouth—your mouth, and is constantly trying to start its work of destruction there.

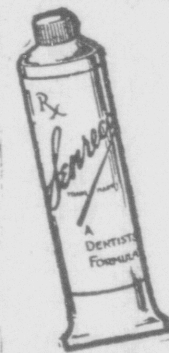

Don't wait until the advanced stages of the disease appear in the form of bleeding gums, tenderness in chewing and loose teeth. You can begin now to ward off these terrible results. Accept the advice of dentists everywhere are giving, and take special precautions by using a local treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet this need for local treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public

in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentinal Remedies Co., 504 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Storm Buggies that Will Keep You Warm, Look
Nice and Wear Well. That's the Kind.

Everybody wants a nice storm buggy and I have one for everybody. Some of my competitors are going to quit selling buggies, or at least they advertise they are, and I am going to take their word for it, and just between ourselves, I have been looking for it for sometime, and I have reason for looking for it. Every year I sell more buggies than I did the year before and there is not much room left for competition. You naturally ask the question "How do you increase your buggy business all the time?" and the answer is that I give more buggy value for the money than anyone else, treat everybody alike and treat them right. I can prove I give more value for the money than my competitors as I am handling a storm buggy this winter, formally sold by one of my competitors, and I am selling it for $10.00 less than it ever sold for before, remember the same buggy for $10.00 less. Maybe you bought one last year and paid the extra $10.00. If you did, remember when you need a buggy look around. It has saved lots of vehicle buyers money to buy them of me, and I want you for a customer. The only way you can sell things right, is to buy them right, and not throwing any bouquets at myself, I sure buy right and I want to give you the advantage of good buying. Good buying, and a large volume of business make it possible for me to sell you a buggy from $10.00 to $15.00 cheaper than any one else. It is a simple proposition to figure out how it is done, and when you get ready to buy a buggy, buy where the majority buy, and save.

JUDGE SPARKS ALLOWS NO TIME KILLING WHEN HE TRIES A CASE

"Bloody Bill" Keeps Thing Moving
as he Did When on College Football Team

"CARRIES THE BALL ALONG"

"Bloody Bill" Sparks makes folks sit up and take notice in the court room just as he made them sit up in the bleachers around the football gridiron in the days when he was a star at De Pauw university. His gavel speaks sharply and briefly but it has a clarion note of command that brings instant attention and to his credit, it has been but seldom that it has been necessary.

Judge Sparks, is hearing the Hasemeier corporation suit against the Bentlage estate, in Wayne circuit court. And he "certainly runs court" and "carries the ball" along.

He gave the attorneys in the case quite a shock Monday evening when he announced at 5 o'clock:

"We will adjourn until 8:30 Tuesday morning."

"Why, that is somewhat unusual in this court," exclaimed Charles E. Shively, while other attorneys, jerked upright in their seats, quite dumb with the shock.

"Well of course I would like to follow the custom of this court," smiled Judge Sparks, as a puzzled expression appeared on his face, "We all of course would like to pass as much time at home as possible,

The attorneys hastened to assure him that 8:30 was plenty early but that 9 o'clock was the usual hour in Wayne county.

So judge Sparks consented to the later hour. Aside from a court official and a football player, he is quite proud of a son of about 10 years.

This son was much interested in the approaching marriage of President Wilson and he told Judge Sparks that:

"I guess President Wilson has not been spending all of his time in Europe."

Judge Sparks was given the appellation of "Bloody Bill" because once in a football practice he was tramped out by a big line smasher who put his foot in Judge Sparks' mouth and mashed out a few teeth. He is not, however, the same "Bloody" Bill Sparks of De Pauw university gridiron fame.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 30.—Before what was expected to be the largest crowd that ever saw a football game in the state of Indiana the eleven representing Indiana University and Washington and Lee University lined up against each other here this afternoon at Washington Park. It was the first intersectional game ever played in Hoosierdom and the only intersectional game to be played by a western conference team this year.

Enthusiasm was the highest ever seen over a football game in this city. Practically the entire student body and faculty of Indiana University arrived at 11 o'clock on two special trains. Special interurban cars and trains brought many alumni here to see the Crimson battle the Generals from Virginia. It was believed that the attendance would reach 15,000.

Dope as well as betting on the game was fifty-fifty. The strength of Washington and Lee was well known. Last year the Generals ran up a total of 300 points in the nine games played to 12 points scored by their opponents. This year as last year the Virginians have yet to taste defeat. They have beaten Virginia Poly by practically the same score as the strong Navy team made against the Virginian Engineers. Two weeks from today Washington and Lee meets Cornell, a team that looks good for the eastern championship and thus will be forged a link connecting the east with the west.

After a two weeks drill by Coach Childs and Thorpe, it is believed that many of the errors of the Indiana team in the Chicago game have been wiped out. However, neither the team or the coaches were over-confident as it was realized that Indiana was to meet one of the great tests of the season. It was predicted that should the Crimson win this afternoon, all of the other games on the Indiana schedule would go into the victory column.

EXPECT HARD GAME.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 30.—Notre Dame met a test today nearly as severe as that of last Saturday at Nebraska when South Dakota came here on the first visit of the Dakotans this far east. South Dakota lost to Minnesota, a western conference title contender, by a 19 to 0 score, and today's game will give a basis for a comparison between Notre Dame and the Big Nine. The Catholics were conceded to have more of a chance than last Saturday against Nebraska.

DOPE FAVORS DEPAUW.

Greencastle, Ind., Oct. 30.—It looked like Earlham might be eliminated from the secondary college race when the Quakers met DePauw here this afternoon. While the Quakers were credited with a strong team it was hardly believed to be a match for the smooth running Methodist machine, though Earlham always plays its best game against DePauw.

ODDS ON WABASH.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 30.—While the big show was going on out at Washington Park between Indiana and Washington and Lee, a quiet little battle was waged out in Irvington this afternoon between Butler, last year's champions, and Wabash, a good bet for this year's title. Big odds were placed on Wabash.

ROSE AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 30.—Having lost to one Indiana eleven, Wabash, by a big score, the University of Louisville went into today's game with Rose Poly determined to stop one Hoosier invader.

However, with the Engineers going like a house afire, the chances of the Kentuckians were believed less than even.

PLAY AT KNIGHTSTOWN

The Russians, a team composed of amateur football stars of this city, journeyed to Knightstown this morning, where they met the team representing the Indiana Soldiers and Sailors Home. The local bunch expected to win over the Home boys. The boys who made the trip from here were: Wolcott, Pearsey, Osborne, Jones, Perrin, Keaton, Doll, Howell, Risk, Kelley, McCarty, Stoops, Frazier, and Applegate.

LARGE CROWD OF BUYERS OUT

The combination sale was in full swing this afternoon at the Clark saie barn in South Morgan street. There was a large crowd of men present and the bidding was spirited. The sale continued for a short time Friday afternoon and was continued today because it was thought the stuff could be sold today. Many horses were disposed of today and they brought average prices.

Western Horseman, the famous sire which has 17½ and 18½ trotters to his credit sold this afternoon about two o'clock for fifty-five dollars under the block. John K. Gowdy the owner of Western Horseman, made a statement to the crowd of buyers that the stallion was twenty-two years old. The horse has outlived his usefulness for breeding purposes and his legs are in bad condition. He has not been raced for many years but was always a favorite show horse. When he was nearing the two score mark, he could go out at a horse show or county fair and win the blue ribbon over horses in their prime.

FRENCH BOXER LOST AIR "BOUT"

Georges Carpentier, Sensational
Heavyweight, Outdistanced by Airman in Thrilling Flight.

WRITES TO FRIENDS HERE

One Had Close Call When Machine
Stopped High in Air, But Escaped With Few Bruises

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Oct. 30.—Georges Carpentier, the sensational young French boxer who before the war was looked on as the most logical man to uncrown Jack Johnson, lost his first "bout" in the world war. Carpentier is now a Sergeant Aviator in the French Flying Corps, and has seen extensive service in the air.

In letters to friends here, Carpentier describes his adventures and mournfully depicts the loss of his first brush with the enemy, but he says there will be another battle and when it comes it will be to a death decision—no throwing in the towel, nor faking.

Carpentier relates that he got his pilot's license after only two months apprenticeship. He was given a new Maurice Farman 130-horse power biplane and was employed in reconnoitering over Alsace.

One day he was assigned to patrol duty, and while he paced his "beat" high in the clouds a German aviator, or "aviatik" came into view.

"I immediately gave chase," he writes, but the Boche's machine was much faster than mine and—rue the day!—he out-distanced me. I can only describe the feeling by saying it was like going into the ring against a man many stones heavier than yourself. I have fought and whipped many adversaries under similar handicaps but, alas! I could do nothing."

During the chase, Carpentier's machine was hit twice by the German, who fired over a hundred shots at him, but he himself was untouched.

Georges has had many narrow escapes during the war but with one exception has come through unscathed.

On one occasion he relates his motor stopped dead while he was 1,800 metres (600 feet) above the earth.

"In all my ring battles," he writes, "I never was so near out, mentally and physically, as then. There I hung suspended high in the clouds. There was an empty feeling in the pit of my stomach. And there was none of my seconds to toss up the sponge so I could sink away into sweet oblivion. Bombardier Wells, you remember, almost had me out once, but it was nothing compared with this.

"But I brushed the cobwebs away, spread my feet wide apart and hung on for the bell. By skilful manipulation of the levers, if I do say it myself, I managed to glide down. The Vosges country, though, is very rough and hilly, and I hit with a crash!

"The shock of meeting the ground threw me headlong. I was stunned for a moment, but came round nicely long before the referee started counting, and when I took stock of myself in my corner, found I had a bad gash in the head and a sprained ankle. Quite wonderful, isn't it that I should escape so easily, when poor, brave Peguod (famous French aviator) was killed?

"I was found by some of my countrymen and taken to the hospital. I was only there a few weeks, and am now out and looking for another chance to sign up with one of the Boches, or a dozen for that matter.

"It is quite possible that by the time you receive this I shall have achieved my ambition, and really brought down a Boche aviatic."

Carpentier is of the opinion the war is a lot nearer to an end than most people imagine. He compared the Germans to a boxer who piles up a big lead of points in the first ten rounds only to be knocked out by one stiff punch in the eleventh.

It is not impossible that the young Frenchman had in mind the present Allied offensive when he prophesied that the Allies still packed a kick in one paw.

The part aviation is playing in the war is tremendous, he says.

"My American friends cannot imagine the grandeur, the magnificence of seeing a field of fifty soaring birds sail out into the sunlight bound for some hated camp of the Boches. No one can. I used to think a ring battle was the most grandly spectacular thing imaginable. But, pooh! it is nothing beside feeling yourself soaring in the clouds after a real enemy—not one whom you have knocked and you can help to his feet and shake hands.

"There is no handshaking in this ring!

"To my many American friends au revoir, and wish with me that I may clinch my match with my adversary—and get the decision."

TO EXPOUND THE CATHOLIC DOCTRINE

Rev. Bertrand L. Conway, C. S. P.,
of New York City, to Lecture
Here All Next Week.

LIST OF TOPICS ARE GIVEN

The list of lectures to be given at St. Mary's Catholic church next week by the Rev. Bertrand L. Conway, C. S. P. of New York City is as follows: Monday, "Is One Church as Good as Another;" Tuesday, "The Church and the Bible;" Wednesday, "The Papacy;" Thursday, "The Confession of Sins;" Friday, "The Lord's Supper;" Saturday, "The Sacrifice of the Mass;" Sunday, 10 a. m., "Prayer;" Sunday, 7:45 p. m., "Why I am a Catholic."

Though a comparatively young man, Father Conway has probably delivered discourses on Catholic doctrine before more Non-Catholics than any other priest in the country, his work having made his name familiar from coast to coast. His native brilliancy and his wide experience are particularly in evidence in his handling of the Question Box. His explanations are always to the point and always given in a manner that leaves no sting.

Non-Catholics will be made especially welcome at these lectures which are free. Those who would wish to hear the Catholic side of disputed question, as well as those whose reading and whose experience have perhaps given them strange notions of the beliefs and the practices in these times of religious unrest of the ancient church are particularly urged to place their queries in the Question Box provided for the purpose, at the door of the church. The opportunity is an unusual one. The lectures begin each evening at 7:45 p. m.

SAYS GERMANY FEARS STARVATION

British Press Displays Reports
From Continent That Food
Shortage Exists

PEACE OFFERS DISCOUNTED

BY ED L. KEEN
(Copyright 1915 by U. P.)

London, Oct. 30.—Fear of starvation is declared by the newspapers here today to be producing a very serious situation in Germany.

Amsterdam and Copenhagen reports of the food shortage declared to exist already throughout the Fatherland are prominently displayed in the press. American dispatches concerning German peace overtures which are attributed to economic pressure also are given much prominence.

The newspapers are unanimous that the allies should ignore all Tuetic peace offers despite the gravity of the Balkan situation and the probability that the Austro-Germans will reach Constantinople.

GREAT PROBLEM FACES INDIANA

Dr. Bliss Declares That Feeble-mindedness is Become Menace And Offers a Solution

ADVISES FARM COLONY PLAN

Segregation is Advocated in Address at Richmond—Says it is Business Proposition

(By United Press.)

Richmond, Ind., Oct. 30.—The rapid growth in number of the feeble-minded in Indiana and every other state was this afternoon described by Dr. George C. Bliss as the "most momentous problem" that confronts the citizens. Dr. Bliss then outlined a way in which, he said, Indiana could solve this problem and become a world leader among commonwealths in so doing. Segregation of the feeble minded was advocated by Dr. Bliss.

Dr. Bliss is superintendent of the Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth at Fort Wayne. He spoke this afternoon before the Children's bureau of Indiana, which met here as a preliminary to the state conference of Charities and Corrections, which open tonight.

"I should be faithless to my duty if I did not point out to you the great menace to this state of leaving the 4,500 feeble-minded, now at large in our communities, to their own devices, to marry and reproduce their kind, to fill the police court of our larger cities and towns, to augment the supply of prostitutes and paupers, as well as the other forms of vice to which a degenerate will supply in turn," said Dr. Bliss.

Dr. Bliss said that in 1914 the 12,708 inmates of our state institutions cost the state in round numbers $2,500,000 in maintenance alone of the nineteen public institutions. He emphasized the fact that in 1890 there were only 5,406 inmates and that the cost then was only $856,000.

"He is a bold man indeed who would suggest a yet further expenditure of money towards the same end," said Dr. Bliss, "Let no citizen of the state of Indiana think for one moment that he is not already paying the bills of this most unfortunate class; if not in an institution like that at Fort Wayne, then in the police courts, in the circuit courts, in the jails, on the pauper lists of our towns and cities, to say nothing of the vice and almost unbelievable debauchery fostered by some of these people now at large. But even this bill that you are paying great as it is, is comparatively small compared to the legacy of crime, pauperism and vice you are leaving to your children and grand children, if something is not done to check the growth of this burden.

"Owing to their lack of control, habits and manner of life, the number of feeble minded is increasing at a faster ratio than the normal increase of population."

Dr. Bliss then gave his solution—the segregation of this class from society.

Sterilization, he said, is for the present, at least, not a practical plan, due to "the conscientious opposition by some people and because our civilization is not yet advanced enough to have the mass of the people educated to so radical measure." Laws will not prevent this class from marrying and reproducing, he said, unless better enforced. But segregation is already costing the state $2,500,000 said Dr. Bliss; and the cost is rapidly increasing. "Shall we continue this indefinitely?" he asked.

"Suppose that as a business proposition the tax payers and our legislature could be made to see that by an immediate expenditure of say $5,000,000 or even $10,000,000 the state taxes could in 50 years be reduced one-half. Don't you think they would do it. Yet this can be done."

Seventy five per cent of the feeble minded are defective because their parents were feeble minded, he said. If all reproductions by defectives were stopped, as segregation would stop it, then in 50 years there would be left only 25 per cent of feeble-minded due to other causes. The Ft. Wayne man then said the syphilis and alcohol account for a large part of the remaining 25 per cent and that this number could be considerably reduced.

Dr. Bliss then advocated the farm colony plan, whereby, he said, the state charges would in a measure support themselves and live under most favorable conditions.

"Why should not Indiana be a leader in this kind of work" concluded Dr. Bliss, "and show the world how to solve this most momentous problem that now confronts the citizens of this and every other state."

Anna Wilson for Presidency.

STATE TEACHERS' MEETING

C. M. George, county superintendent of the schools in Rush county, was a member of the nominating committee of the State Teachers' association, in session in Indianapolis, which late Friday afternoon recommended Miss Anna Wilson, principal of the Crawfordsville high school, for the presidency of the association. It was expected the teachers in session at the Indiana state fair ground coliseum this morning would confirm the recommendations of the nominating committee.

The committee was confronted with a hard battle. There was much sentiment for a woman president this time and the committee evidently decided finally that the sentiment could not be discounted. Miss Wilson is known to Rushville school teachers as well as to Rushville persons who attended Wabash college at Crawfordsville. Her high school has been designated by the United States department of education as a model one. Superintendent George represented this congressional district on the nominating committee.

GANZ WILL TEACH CARTHAGE GIRL

Miss Mary Blue, Who Formerly

Dr. Frank Damrosch.

IS IN FAMOUS INSTITUTE

Miss Mary Blue, a former Carthage young lady and daughter of Miss Flora Blue, of Dayton, O., is in New York City where she will spend a year at the Institute of Musical Art, having as her teacher in piano the celebrated artist, Rudolph Ganz, says the Carthage Citizen.

Miss Blue passed her entrance examinations very successfully, playing for Dr. Frank Damrosch who expressed himself as very much pleased with her work and at once placed her among the twelve pupils who will have the privilege of studying with Mr. Ganz this year. In her theoretical studies Miss Blue was placed in the classes of Dr. Goetichius, who is considered one of the greatest musical theorists of the day and who is the author of numerous text books on harmony and counterpoint.

Miss Blue was recently engaged to play at a concert to be given at the Waldorf-Astoria under the auspices of the Ohio society.

FAIR LOST OVER $500 THIS YEAR

Treasurer's Report Is Read But Meeting of Stockholders is Postponed For Two Weeks.

POOR ATTENDANCE IS CAUSE
Postponement Suggested Because Important Question is up—
Threats of Receivership Heard.

Due to poor attendance, the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Rush County Fair association, scheduled for this afternoon, was postponed until two weeks from today.

Though regular meeting did not take place, the reports of the treasurer, J. V. Young, and the secretary, J. Q. Thomas, were read, and a statement of the indebtedness of the association made.

The postponement was made on motion of Lon Link. He said that since there were two hundred and forty stockholders of the association and only twenty present, and since the financial condition of the association was in bad straits and threats had been made to throw the association into the hands of a receiver, it would be best to postpone the meeting.

Treasurer J. V. Young's report showed that there was $104.81 in the treasury and some vouchers were still unpaid. The report included $600 borrowed by the association this year, which reveals that the fair this year lost $500, not counting the vouchers still unpaid.

The treasurer's report showed a balance in the treasury of $100.
The variance in the balance is due to the fact that some vouchers have been issued by the secretary which have not been paid by the treasurer.

The secretary also made a statement to the stockholders that the association is now indebted in the sum of $3,811.

New directors were to be elected today, but that matter, as well as the future policy of the association, will be settled at the forthcoming meeting.

When Mr. Link put the motion in which he asserted that threats had been made to throw the association into the hands of a receiver, he said that the secretary should be instructed to notify each one of the stockholders individually that important business would be transacted.

Farmers were busy with fall work, which was one reason assigned for the poor attendance. Lack of interest in the fair is also given as another cause.

The report of Treasurer James V.
Young was as follows:

Chargeable as per last re- port	$ 112.09
Received from sale of tick- ets	3,741.00
Received from J. Q. Thomas, secretary	2,053.00
Received from Noah Tryon, Supt. of grounds	526.63

B.W. RILEY IMPROVED TODAY

Fell Out of Wagon at His Farm and Severely Cut and Bruised.

B. W. Riley, who fell out of his wagon at the Riley farm last evening, was much improved today and it was expected that he would recover rapidly. It was first thought that he was seriously injured because he complained of inward pains. Mr. Riley lost his balance and toppled over, severely bruising his body and cutting his face badly.
As soon as he regained his senses,
he drove to his home here. Members of his family were badly frightened when he came home, his face and clothes smeared with blood. On account of his age, it was feared last night that his injuries might prove serious.

IS ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT ON WIFE

Thomas Alzman Will be Tried Tonight Before Mayor Bebout—
His Story of Trouble.

MRS. ALSMAN BADLY CUT UP

Thomas Alzman will be tried tonight on charges of assault and battery and surety of peace before Mayor Bebout. Alzman was arrested late Friday afternoon at his home in East Eighth street after the neighbors had called the police, claiming that Alzman was about to kill his wife. He entered a plea of not guilty last night and was released on bond.

The neighbors stated to the police that family fights at the Alsman home had been frequent and they were getting tired of the racket. It was stated that Alzman threw his wife through a window. The police found one window smashed and Mrs.
Alzman's arms were both cut. Als-man claims that his sister-in-law has been making all the trouble.

Alzman today filed charges of provoke and malicious trespass against his sister-in-law, Flora Williams, whom he accuses of causing the trouble, but she has not yet been arraigned.

TAXES STILL UNPAID AMOUNT TO $45,000

County Treasurer's Office Opened Today With Big Collection to be Made by Tuesday.

MONDAY WILL BE LAST DAY

At the opening of business this morning in the county treasurer's office a total of $45,000 remained to be paid on the fall installment of taxes. This $45,000 had to be paid today and Monday and the force at the office was hopeful that the amount would be taken in and thus have a small delinquent list.

A total of $18,000 was collected yesterday and the rush started again early this morning. It was estimated that today's tax collections would be the heaviest of the entire period and thus leave only a small sum for the last and final day which is Monday. The collections this week at the office have been exceedingly heavy because many have put off payment of their taxes until the last moment.

Believing that there have been flagrant violations of the law prohibiting the offering of cholera hogs

Barnard, Indiana state food and drug commissioner, has issued a letter to all county health officers and a similar one to all Indiana mayors, urging them to co-operate with the state health board to prevent such sales and calling upon them to notify the department of such violations.

Dr. Barnard hopes through this campaign to stop the practice of selling diseased hogs and also believes that the measures will greatly assist in stamping out the disease which is generally reported throughout the state.

So far as known there have been few violations of the law in this county and none of them willful.
In several cases, it is reported, hogs that have been sold have afterwards developed cholera but the presence of the disease was not known to the original owners. Precautions have been taken at all the public sales held in this county since the disease became prevalent to prevent it from spreading to unaffected areas. Farmers who attend many of the sales say they believe the presence of cholera in the county has had an effect upon the hog sales but say that the owners are always careful about placing hogs that even have been exposed to cholera on the market.

It is said that there has been a lack of funds to prosecute under the law but Dr. Barnard is authority for the statement that his department now is amply able to prosecute all such violations and that he has determined to stop this practice.

Dr. Barnard said in his letters that he had advised buyers and shippers that receipt at any stock yards or market of hogs suffering from cholera will be accepted as prima facie evidence that the animals were diseased when shipped. Penalties for the shipment of such diseased animals are provided under Indiana statutes.

The letter of Barnard to the health officers followed a conference between Dr. Nelson, state veterinarian, and Barnard, and it then became known that the hog cholera situation in Indiana is the worst in recent years.

Stories that are almost unbelieveable were told by Dr. Nelson of the shipment of diseased hogs to the Indianapolis market and stock yards.
One incident he related was of a shipment of sixty-two hogs to the Indianapolis yards some days ago.
Inspection by state, city and government agents is counted on to prevent diseased meat from getting to the public.

Dr. Barnard's letter probably sounded the first gun in the campaign of publicity which will be carried on against the diseased meat conditions. Conditions probably will affect the market price of pork soon, was the opinion of Dr. Nelson.

Dr. Barnard's letter to health agents follows:
"We are in the midst of the worst hog cholera epidemic that has ever visited the state, and many thous-

NO DESTRUCTION TO BE TOLERATED

Police Will Have Plenty of Assistance Tonight and Will Conduct
"Safe and Sane" Hallowe'en.

MANY PARTIES ARE PLANNED
Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, Dancing Pavilion Will be Scene of Merry Festivities.

The genuine Hallowe'en is tomorrow, but since that day is Sunday the celebration will take place tonight. The police are going to see to it that the celebration is not the rowdy, destructive kind that is generally the rule. The special police which have been serving during the fall festival and horse show week will be on the job tonight, stationed throughout the residence part of the district to see that property is not damaged.

Many Hallowe'en parties are in prospect and most of the young people are preparing to make merry by donning grotesque costumes and appearing on the streets. Many will take advantage of the opportunity to have a good time by attending the masked dance which will be given by the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, at the dancing pavillion in front of the K. of P. building. The pavillion has been up all week for the fall festival and horse show.

But all the boys and girls in this city, both young and old, who have been saving up a little corn to throw or who have a little innocent mischief in their systems that they wish to cast off, will be "Johnny-on-the-spot" Saturday night. The city officials want every one to have the time of his life, if they work no injury to anyone else, but when their mischief gets out of bounds they may expect to hear the police call
"foul ball."

The officers hold that each person old enough to celebrate is also old enough to know what an innocent amusement is, and anything that is really harmless in every way will not be molested by the officers. A large number of Hallowe'en socials are already being held throughout the city and country and a larger number yet will be held Saturday night. Many of them will be masque parties and, taken altogether, the night will be a time which the old and young will celebrate with a little frolic.

A number of merchants have taken advantage of Hallowe'en to attractively decorate their display windows. In several stores masks, and other Hallowe'en supplies are in evidence. During the last week there have been a number of parties and other social events, are planned tonight and Saturday.

FIRE VICTIMS ARE BURIED

Funeral of Seventeen Burned at St.
John's School Held Today.

(By United Press.)
Peabody, Mass., Oct. 30.—Seventeen, little white coffins stood end to end at the rail of St. John's church today when funeral services were held for the victims of the fire that swept St. John's Parochial school Thursday.

Cardinal O'Connell officiated. Business was suspended and the church was filled to overflowing. Hundreds gathered in the church yard.

Mrs. Jacob Myers went to Brookville today to visit with relatives and friends.

agreement he is to use the same burro during the entire trip.

WOMAN HEADS THE INDIANA TEACHERS

Miss Anna Willson, Principal of Crawfordsville High School,
Elected President.

RECOMMENDATIONS ARE MADE

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 30.—Miss Anna Willson, principal of the Crawfordsville high school, was today elected president of the State Teachers' association. The election was made unanimous on the motion of Miss Belle O'Hair, defeated candidate for the nomination.

The entire list of nominations announced last night the nominating committee was successful.

Resolutions recommended today that the attendance requirements of teachers of county and city and town superintendents and the school superintendents be the same and that the convention be held a week before or a week following the October examinations.

JUDGE SPARKS ON BENCH HERE TODAY

Grants Divorce to George Wolfe on Payment of Costs and Rules in Other Cases.

REAL ESTATE ORDERED SOLD

Judge Will M. Sparks, who has been acting as special judge in the Wayne circuit court for two weeks, was on the bench here today and acted in several cases.

In the petition of Alice Leisure, administratrix of the estate of Arthur O. F. Leisure, against John C.
Leisure and others, to sell real estate, Judge Sparks granted the petition and ordered the land sold at private sale.

The case of Bertha Toyne's and Stella Platt against Lon H. Mull, executor of the estate of Nancy Miller, deceased, Ida M. Clingman and Mary E. Edmondson, to contest the will of Mrs. Miller, was sent to Shelby county on a change of venue and ten days was allowed to perfect the change.

Judgment was rendered for the plaintiff in the sum of $350 and costs in the case of Otis S. Johnson against John A. Gray. A jury returned a verdict allowing that sum in Johnson's suit for damages, alleging malicious prosecution.

George Wolfe was today granted a divorce from Sarah Alice Wolfe on payment of the costs.

HE WANTS GOOD FARM AND WIDOW

Lovice Lovelace Writes to Richmond
Mayor About "Some" of Things
he Would Enjoy.

SAYS RUSHVILLE IS HIS HOME

Inquiry at Postoffice Fails to Reveal Who "Mr. Lovelace" Might Be—Widows Beware.

A communication signed by Lo-vice Lovelace giving Rushville as his home, has been received by the mayor of Richmond, in which Lovelace asks for only a wife and a farm, especially the farm. The man's name is not in the city directory here and inquiry at the postoffice failed to locate him. In his letter to Mayor Robbins of Richmond he wants a wealthy widow with a fertile farm. The letter follows:
Mr. Mayor, Dear Sir:

With pleasure I shall write and ask you for a favor which I hope you will gladly grant me and wish to thank you in advance for the same. Dear Mr. Mayor, I am anxious to correspond with some nice young widow who is located on a farm and needs the help of a young man.

I am of Irish-American parent-age and do not drink; a member of a church and I am all alone in this world. I have a college education and wish to meet some one who has a farm and has no one to help her.
She must be of American birth and educated.

I am 28 years of age and was reared in Tennessee. Have red hair, brown eyes and fair complexion.
Five feet, seven inches tall. Weight 140 pounds. I am interested in poultry farming and have worked in cities throughout the state and now wish to find some one who is willing to come forth and offer this young man a fair chance to make someone happy. She must not be over thirty years of age and love the lure of out of door life. I have no relatives living and as things are very dull in my profession I would prefer to secure a place with some one who would appreciate a Christian boy as a life companion.

I have no photo to send and as I am not located permanently will get mail addressed to Sergeant Mc-Nally, Richmond, Ind., police headquarters.

Dear ladies, if you are lonely and wish for a faithful and helping hand on the farm why here is your chance as I am willing if you are and I am not a wealthy man and I will show myself to be trustworthy. So if you mean business why get ready as leap year is nearly here. Please send me your photo in your first note. With best wishes for success

Some Money for You, Sir!

When a manufacturer advertises his goods in this newspaper he is saying to the storekeepers of this city:—

"Some money for you, Sir!"
That advertising is creating business for every retailer who handles the goods.

Alert storekeepers know this.
They show the goods in their windows at the time they are being newspaper advertised and reap the profit on the manufac-

SAYS ENGLAND IS SLOW WITH HER AID

Former Premier of Serbia Declares Unless British Hurry, They Will Be Too Late

IS NOT CALLING FOR HELP

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, Oct. 30.—"Serbia" asks favors from nobody. All she wants is fair play. She expects the allies to do their full duty by her. France is doing this already. Doubtless England intends to do likewise but she is too slow. Unless she hurries her aid will come too late."

Thus Milenko Vestnich, former premier of Serbia and present Serbian minister in Paris, summed up the Balkan situation today in an interview granted exclusively to the United Press. He has just returned from Serbia and is familiar with all the existing conditions.

"I do not wish to be interpreted," he added, "as calling for help. It is not in the Serbian peoples' nature to do this. Nor do I say what I do in a spirit of criticism. I am speaking plainly for the allies good generally."

SUIT AGAINST SHERIFF

Alberta M. Walker Demands Possession of Cows and a Horse.

Alberta M. Walker, wife of A. P. Walker, formerly of near this city, today brought suit against Vorhees Cavitt, as sheriff of Rush county, for $100 damages. She demands possession of four jerseys and a gray mare, alleged to be held illegally by the sheriff and asserted in the complaint to be worth $500. She states they were not taken as a tax, assessment or fine pursuant to a statute and that they were not seized under execution or attachment. No cause was assigned for the sheriff holding them.

ands of hogs suffering from cholera are being sold, slaughtered and used for food, in every case in violation of law and of common decency. The situation is serious, and so long as hog cholera is generally prevalent your market and butchers are bound to receive diseased animals unless unusual efforts are made to exclude them.

"I have advised buyers and shippers that the receipt at any stock yards or market of hogs suffering from cholera will be accepted as prima facie evidence that the hogs were diseased when shipped and that the shipment was made in violation of Chapter 135, Acts 1913. See also Red Book, Page 117, Paragraph 2455.

"Whenever you know of shipments of diseased animals advise me by wire, giving name of shipper and destination. Whenever you believe diseased hogs have been shipped or killed, file information with the prosecuting attorney. Notify your butcher not to buy diseased animals under penalty of $500. The shipment, sale and killing of diseased animals must be stopped and we count on your efficient co-operation to this end."

The letter sent to mayors of the state was very similar to the one sent to health officers.

SEVEN TAKE EXAMINATION

This is First Test Under New Law Passed in January.

Seven prospective teachers took the examination for a license to teach today. The examination is the first under the new law, which provides that examinations can be held every month starting in October and continuing until May. Heretofore no examination was held in October and the number taking the examination came up to expectations, according to Superintendent George. The examination was held in the office of the superintendent instead of in the examination room, owing to small number of the applicants.

OUTGROWTH OF ELECTION

Thirty Are Indicted at Sullivan Charged With Conspiracy.

(By United Press.)

Sullivan, Ind., Oct. 30.—The Sullivan county grand jury today returned an indictment charging thirty men with conspiring to commit a felony. The indictment resulted from charges made following a liquor election. High officials of three breweries are involved and also a Shelburn justice of the peace and a Terre Haute saloon keeper. Officials of the Cook, Terre Haute and Anhauserbush breweries were indicted.

TAKE SERB POSITION.

RALSTON APPROVES BALL CASE VERDICT

Governor Upholds Finding of Court Martial That Sergeant of I. N. G. Was Not Guilty.

PRIVATE DOWELL SHOT BY HIM

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 30.—Governor Ralston gave his approval yesterday to a finding of not guilty returned by a court-martial composed of officers of the Indiana National Guard in the case of Sergt. Edwin C. Ball of Indianapolis, who was charged with manslaughter.

The court-martial made its finding six weeks ago, but the Governor, who went over the evidence carefully, withheld his approval until yesterday.

Sergt. Ball, while a member of the provost guard of the 1913 National Guard encampment, shot and killed Walter Dowell, a private of a Madison, (Ind.) company, who was escaping after having been arrested for having liquor in his possession.

The judge of a civil court held that Ball should be prosecuted by the state authorities, but, after a long delay in fixing a date for his trial, a new judge of the court allowed the case to be dropped. The military authorities then stepped in and disposed of the case. The action of the Governor brings the case to a close. The Governor prepared the following statement:

"There is some doubt as to whether the Governor is required to take any action, either approving or disapproving the finding in the case, but since the accused has been once put in jeopardy, and has been tried and acquitted by the court-martial, and in order that there may be no injustice done him in making the record in this case, the finding of the court martial is approved. The prisoner, Edwin C. Ball, is discharged."

TIM AND HIS WIFE UP AGAIN

She Places Two Charges Against McGrath—He is Fined on One.

Tim McGrath and his wife again aired their troubles in police court this afternoon. This time Mrs. McGrath charged her husband with assault and battery and public intoxication. The former charge was dismissed and McGrath was fined five dollars and costs and sentenced to sixty days at the penal farm on the latter charge. The sentence was suspended by Mayor Bebout pending good behavior.

—Mrs. Charles Baker will leave this evening for Gosport, Ind., to join a party of friends on an automobile tour to Orleans, Ind., and other points in the southern part of the state.

—Mrs. Gertrude James of Connersville, who has been visiting friends here, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Charley Frank accompanied her home, and will spend Sunday with relatives in Connersville.

—Miss Marion McMillin, a student in Indiana university at Bloomington, will spend Sunday here with her mother, after attending the I. U. and Washington and Lee football game in Indianapolis this afternoon.

—Miss Marie Clawson of this city and Miss Forsythe of Indianapolis, and Donald Alexander and Byron Cowing went to Indianapolis this morning in Alexander's machine to see the I. U.-W. and L. football game.

—J. T. Arbuckle and J. L. Cowing will go to Richmond Sunday to attend the Indiana state conference of charities and corrections. Mr. Arbuckle is a member of the state board of pardons and Mr. Cowing a trustee of Easthaven insane hospital at Richmond.

—Miss Mary Christie of Fort Wayne, left this morning for her home, after a short visit with John Rosencrance and children of this city. Miss Christie is a sister-in-law of Mr. Rosencrance, and has been attending the State Teachers Association in Indianapolis.

—Mrs. L. L. Allen and son Churchill were in Indianapolis today and saw "The Blue Bird" at the Murat Theater this afternoon.

—Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Chauncey Duncan, Mrs. J. C. Sexton, Mrs. Sarah Mull, Mrs. Robert Tompkins, Mrs. Will Sparks and Mrs. Will Havens were among the passengers this morning to Indianapolis, and formed a theater party at English's this afternoon, where they saw "The Lie."

Amusements

Comedy will be featured at the Gem theater tonight. "Lizzie and the Beauty Contest," a two reeler, offers a mess of fun all rolled up into two long films. Eddie Lyons, Victoria Ford (Lizzie) and Lee Moran will have the leading parts. Hank Mann and Gertrude Selby will be seen in "Gertie's Joy Ride" tonight. For Monday the Gem offers Billie Ritchie, the famous comedian, and Louise Orth in a two reel comedy, "Vendetta in a Hospital." Tuesday the sixth chapter in "The Broken Coin" and Wednesday for matinee and night the Gem will put on a big five-act drama, "Just Jim" a powerful story that pulls at the heart strings.

Comedy and drama will be combined on the Princess program for the Saturday evening theater-goers. Leah Bird, Maurice Costello and Donald Hall, the celebrated trio, will be seen to excellent advantage in "The Dawn of Understanding." It is a pathetic story in which a baby's photograph plays an important part and is responsible for bringing together a long separated couple. "She Took a Chance" is a laughable comedy in which Kate Price and William Shea will have the principal parts. A big six-act, feature production will be shown Monday, afternoon and night Mrs. Leslie Carter will be seen in "Du Barry."

Society News

Mrs. Buford Winship will entertain the Jolly Dozen tonight with a masked party.

The Elite club will not meet for two weeks. The next meeting was to have been held Monday with Mrs. Sarah Guffin.

A call meeting of Tri Kappa will be held at the home of Mrs. Earl Moore in North Harrison street Monday afternoon at two o'clock.

The Ladies Aid society of the St. Paul's M. E. church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Homer Powell, corner of Seventh and Morgan streets, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Powell will be assisted by Mrs. Lafara and Mrs. W. P. Elder.

That seal of approval means much to you in the purchase of clothing and furnishings. That has been my hobby for years—absolute satisfaction ahead of any money consideration. I much prefer your good will than to take your money for something that would not be satisfactory until you wear it out—never an eye-sore as long as you have it. My sales in Made-to-Order Suits and Overcoats bears out my hobby, as 80 per cent of my customers are repeaters year after year—truly, "It's the man who knows that wears my clothes." The same thing holds good in my hats, underwear, neckwear, shirts and other men's furnishings. You're not too late to have that measure taken now—weather man says "Cold wave" coming—your summer suit will have to go and you will want a Balmacaan to finish up your outfit.

Betker's Special Hats for $2.00

I have just received my special make of hats direct from the factory. I wanted a hat that had quality in the material, quality in the trimmings and quality in the styles—something a little better than you get elsewhere—and to sell for the popular price of $2.00. These hats had quality put in them from start to finish—regardless of the profit to be had in selling them for $2.00. If you're already supplied, come in anyway and see this wonderful line of hats—you'll want to see them whether you buy now or later. I couldn't begin to tell you in print what it takes to make a hat meet my ideas of

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it is like a rubber band and hearing is lost. When it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

"We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars."

Not Diplomatic Victory

The moves in the new war theatre in the Balkans have profoundly stirred pro-Ally circles and it is notable that the ablest of the pro-Ally newspapers frankly admits the seriousness of the situation, with scant concern for English sensibilities, pointing out the probability of establishing a Teutonic thoroughfare to Constantinople, the possibility of forcing Russia to a separate peace, and menacing of the British empires in Egypt and India. But after marshalling these facts with force, admitting the possibility of German victory the reviewer brushes his own arguments aside and dismisses all his fears as having no more basis than the "imaginative audacity" of the Teutons.

People familiar with Balkan conditions are not surprised at the developments in favor of the Central Powers and against the Allies, for it has never been a question of sentiment with the Balkan states but of selfishness. Each has long cherished nationalistic aims, each has something to get, each has watched to see which of the battling groups was likely to win, and the action of Bulgaria is merely a recognition that the Central Powers are winning. Seeing a strong power arising, the Bulgarians have thrown their lot with them, and it is not unthinkable that other lesser powers will do likewise. In short the action of Bulgaria is not a diplomatic victory for Germany, is not a diplomatic defeat for Great Britain, but is a consequence reached through the achievements of armies.

Duty free goods continue to pour into the country. The value of imports for the week ending October 9, 1915, at the thirteen principal customs districts of the United States, was $32,364,630, on which duty was collected to the amount of $3,691,113 or an average ad valorem of 11.4 per cent, compared with the annual average ad valorem of 17.6 per cent for the fiscal year 1913, under the Republican tariff law, a law which gave adequate protection to American industries and labor, and handed the Democratic party a handsome Treasury surplus with which to begin business. Democratic inefficiency and extravagance have changed that surplus into a large deficit. Foreign producers are reaping the benefits of a free trade tariff law, and Secretary McAdoo is at his wit's ends to devise methods for patching up the leaks in the Treasury reservoir. Meanwhile the cost of living does not decrease, as was promised by the Democrats.

The public is ready to hear of the likes and fancies of the lady who is to preside in the White House. She really is a very difficult person for fashion to follow. When she picked out a dull green cloth for her traveling gown, the shade was named "Bolling Green," and the mills began working overtime to meet the demand for this color. But now that Mrs. Galt is decking herself in various archid hues in her evening gowns, her imitators are in despair.

Chicago has produced another literary genius in the person of one Charles Warner, who thusly describes his wife in his bill for divorce: "She is an uncultured woman of the shallow, hair brained, pin head, Calamity Jane type; large, muscular, bony and beefy; she is some athlete, having the activities of a Corbett, the ferocious temper of a tiger, the strength of an ox, and the reason of an ass."

We always admire the man who speaks well of this town, and his neighbors, and his friends, and who is slow to speak ill of other people. We of to-day are so prone to speak hastily and without thought of consequences that it is a relief to find one occasionally who considers the effect of his words before they are uttered. Such men are more than an asset to any town.

Even the most procrastinating man on earth can lower himself into a dining room chair right on the dot.

Chicago has 20,702 Y. M. C. A. members, and yet it took about forty years to screw down that Sunday lid.

If the European governments want to recoup their losses rapidly we humbly suggest a monopoly on the movies.

If you have a clean past you need not worry, over the misfortunes of today. Your record will carry you through.

In all the world there is no man so wise but what in some things he is foolish.

When a man is a man the world will know it without his advertising the fact.

Current Comments

Mr. Clark's Cradle Roll

Clamp Clark essayed the role of prophet in his speech on Clark day at St. Joseph. No one questions his belief in the Democratic party. Being honest, he could not overlook the fact that the Democratic victory in 1912 was a fluke. He knew that Mr. Wilson got 1,300,000 fewer votes than Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt and that he fell short of Mr. Bryan's 1908 vote, 110,000, notwithstanding the growth in population, the enfranchisement of the women of Washington and California and the admission of Arizona and New Mexico. The combined vote of the Republicans and Progressives was also short, 74,000 less than Mr. Taft got in 1908, due to so many disgusted Republicans having pronounced a plague on both the factions.

The only comfort Mr. Clark could offer was that the young men who were on the cradle roll in 1896 will vote the Democratic ticket next time. But there have been other cradle rolls. Every election since 1896 has had its crop of first voters. But the Democratic vote was smaller in 1912 than in 1896, although the population has increased by 23,000,000, three States were admitted and women of two States enfranchised. At every successive election the Republican vote grew larger, being 7,104,779 in 1896, 7,207,923 in 1900, 7,623,486 in 1904 and 7,678,908 in 1908. The Democrats at no election since have equaled the 1896 vote. Why does Mr. Clark think that the young voters in 1916, will be more unsophisticated than those in 1900, 1904, 1908 and 1912? At no election since 1912 have the Democrats gained. Where were the young voters who became of age in 1913 and 1914? The Republicans will get their full share of young voters, and some who were young in years in 1912 are old in experience with Democratic Administrations now.

Morton Enters The Law

Morton left college in 1845 to engage in a n active campaign for the hand of Lucinda M. Burbank of Centerville. They were married in May of that year. At about the same time he began the study of law in the office of John S. Newman of Centerville, who took him into partnership within a year. With the legal lights of the state, such as Julian, Johnson, Test, Ravidan and Mellett, collected in Centerville, the young attorney found the competition strong. By persevering, painstaking work he forged steadily ahead, and in 1852, when twenty nine years old, was elected circuit judge of a Whig District by a Democratic State Assembly.

POLICE DOG SAVED BY OPERATION

Twilight Sleep Used With Great Success to Treat Valuable Animal For Sore Ear

SHOWS NO SIGN OF ANY PAIN

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Oct. 30.—Sherlock, terror to fleeing burglars and one of the most efficient police dogs on the canine staff of the New York Police department, submitted quietly to a painful operation a few days ago under the new "twilight sleep" method. Sherlock never whimpered or showed a disposition to bite, although he was not unconscious.

Sherlock suffered a bruise on his ear while chasing a burglar about a month ago, which developed into so bad a cyst that the dog valued at $1,000 seemed unfit for further service.

The operation, according to Dr. Alfred Oberle, of the Society of Prevention of Cruelty to animals, who performed it, appears to be highly successful and Sherlock will be back on duty in a few weeks.

This is not the first time "twilight sleep" has been used on animals by the society. Horses, dogs and cats alike submit quietly to major operations without having their vitality impaired by the usual anesthesia. Dr. Oberle is convinced that "twilight sleep" will be of considerable benefit to veterinary surgery.

Dr. Oberle has performed major operations on horses in "twilight sleep," the horses standing up, not hobbled or restrained. Without the "twilight sleep" the operation would have been exceedingly painful.

Thousands have this disease—and don't know it

You may be afflicted with that dread disease of the teeth, pyorrhea, and not be aware of it. It is the most general disease in the world! The germ which causes it inhabits every human mouth—your mouth, and is constantly trying to start its work of destruction there.

Don't wait until the advanced stages of the disease appear in the form of bleeding gums, tenderness in chewing and loose teeth. You can begin now to ward off these terrible results. Accept the advice dentists everywhere are giving, and take special precautions by using a local treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet this need for local treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public.

in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sental Remedies Co., 504 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Storm Buggies that Will Keep You Warm, Look Nice and Wear Well. That's the Kind.

Everybody wants a nice storm buggy and I have one for everybody. Some of my competitors are going to quit selling buggies, or at least they advertise they are, and I am going to take their word for it, and just between ourselves, I have been looking for it for sometime, and I have reason for looking for it. Every year I sell more buggies than I did the year before and there is not much room left for competition. You naturally ask the question "How do you increase your buggy business all the time?" and the answer is, that I give more value for the money than anyone else, treat everybody alike and treat them right. I can prove I give more value for the money than my competitors as I am handling a storm buggy this winter, formally sold by one of my competitors, and I am selling it for $10.00 less than it ever sold for before, remember the same buggy for $10.00 less. Maybe you bought one last year and paid the extra before, remember the same buggy for $10.00 less. It has saved lots of vehicle buyers money to buy them of me, and I want you for a customer. The only way you can sell things right, is to buy them right, and not throwing any bouquets at myself, I sure buy right and I want to give you the advantage of good buying. Good buying, and a large volume of business make it possible for me to sell you a buggy from $10.00 to $15.00 cheaper than any one else. It is a simple proposition to figure out how it is done, and when you get ready to buy a buggy, buy where the majority buy, and save.

EXPECT RECORD CROWD AT GAME

Football Fans Flock to Indianapolis Today For Big Game of the Season in Indiana.

—Game Offers Chance For Future Comparisons.

Indiana Games Today.
* Indiana vs. Washington and Lee at Indianapolis.
* Notre Dame vs. South Dakota at South Bend.
* Earlham vs. De Pauw at Greencastle.
* Wabash vs. Butler at Indianapolis.
* Rose Poly vs. Louisville at Louisville.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 30.—Before what was expected to be the largest crowd that ever saw a football game in the state of Indiana the eleven representing Indiana University and Washington and Lee University lined up against each other here this afternoon at Washington Park. It was the first intersectional game ever played in Hoosierdom and the only intersectional game to be played by a western conference team this year.

Enthusiasm was the highest ever seen over a football game in this city. Practically the entire student body and faculty of Indiana University arrived at 11 o'clock on two special trains. Special interurban cars and trains brought many alumni here to see the Crimson battle the Generals from Virginia. It was believed that the attendance would reach 15,000.

Dope as well as betting on the game was fifty-fifty. The strength of Washington and Lee was well known. Last year the Generals ran up a total of 300 points in the nine games played to 12 points scored by their opponents. This year as last year the Virginians have yet to taste defeat. They have beaten Virginia Poly by practically the same score as the strong Navy team made against the Virginia Engineers. Two weeks from today Washington and Lee meets Cornell, a team that looks good for the eastern championship, and thus will be forged a

"Bloody Bill" Keeps Thing Moving as he Did When on College Football Team

"CARRIES THE BALL ALONG"

"Bloody Bill" Sparks makes folks sit up and take notice in the courtroom just as he made them sit up in the bleachers around the football gridiron in the days when he was a star at De Pauw university. His gavel speaks sharply and briefly but it has a clarion note of command that brings instant attention and to his credit, it has been but seldom that it has been necessary.

Judge Sparks, is hearing the Hasemeier corporation suit against the Bentlage estate, in Wayne circuit court. And he "certainly runs court" and "carries the ball" along. He gave the attorneys in the case quite a shock Monday evening when he announced at 5 o'clock:

"We will adjourn until 8:30 Tuesday morning."
"Why, that is somewhat unusual in this court," exclaimed Charles E. Shively, while other attorneys, jerked upright in their seats, quite dumb with the shock.

"Well of course I would like to follow the custom of this court," smiled Judge Sparks, as a puzzled expression appeared on his face. "We all of course would like to pass as much time at home as possible. The attorneys hastened to assure him that 8:30 was plenty early but that 9 o'clock was the usual hour in Wayne county.

So Judge Sparks consented to the later hour. Aside from a court official and a football player, he is quite proud of a son of about 10 years.

This son was much interested in the approaching marriage of President Wilson and he told Judge Sparks that:

"I guess President Wilson has not been spending all of his time in Europe."

Judge Sparks was given the appellation of "Bloody Bill" because once in a football practice he was tramped out by a big line smasher who put his foot in Judge Sparks' mouth and mashed out a few teeth. He is not, however, the same "Bloody" Bill Sparks of De Pauw university gridiron fame.

FAMOUS SIRE BRINGS ONLY $55

Western Horseman Auctioned Off This Afternoon at Combination Sale—He is 22 Years Old.

LARGE CROWD OF BUYERS OUT

The combination sale was in full swing this afternoon at the Clark sale barn in South Morgan street. There was a large crowd of men present and the bidding was spirited. The sale continued for a short time Friday afternoon and was not until today because it was thought the stuff could be sold today. Many horses were disposed of today and they brought average prices.

Western Horseman, the famous sire which has 17½ and 18½ trotters to his credit sold this afternoon about two o'clock for fifty-five dollars under the block. John K. Gowdy the owner of Western Horseman, made a statement to the crowd of buyers that the stallion was twenty-two years old. The horse has outlived his usefulness for breeding purposes and his legs are in bad condition. He has not been raced for many years but was always a favorite show horse. When he was nearing the two score mark, he could go out at a horse show or county fair and win the blue ribbon over horses in their prime.

ODDS ON WABASH.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 30.—While the big show was going on out at Washington Park between Indiana and Washington and Lee, a quiet little battle was waged out in Irvington this afternoon between Butler, last year's champions, and Wabash, a good bet for this year's title. Big odds were placed on Wabash.

ROSE AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 30.—Having lost to one Indiana eleven, Wabash, by a big score, the University of Louisville went into today's game with Rose Poly determined to stop one Hoosier invader.

However, with the Engineers going like a house afire, the chances of the Kentuckians were believed less than even.

PLAY AT KNIGHTSTOWN

The Russians, a team composed of amateur football stars of this city, journeyed to Knightstown this morning where they met the team representing the Indiana Soldiers and Sailors Home. The local bunch expected to win over the Home boys. The boys who made the trip from here were: Woltol, Pearsey, Osborne, Jones, Perrin, Kettin, Dill, Howell, Risk, Kelley, McCarty, Stoops, Frazier, and Applegate.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Humber's Breast Tea, or as the Germans like to call it, "Humber's Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

FRENCH BOXER LOST AIR "BOU"

Georges Carpentier, Sensational
Heavyweight, Outdistanced by
Airman in Thrilling Flight.

WRITES TO FRIENDS HERE

One Had Close Call When Machine
Stopped High in Air, But Es-
caped With Few Bruises

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Oct. 30.—Georges Carpentier, the sensational young French boxer who before the war was looked on as the most logical man to unceremoniously knock out Jack Johnson, lost his first "bout" in the world war. Carpentier is now a Sergeant Aviator in the French Flying Corps, and has seen extensive service in the air.

In letters to friends here, Carpentier describes his adventures and mournfully depicts the loss of his first brush with the enemy, but he says there will be another battle and when it comes it will be to a death decision—no throwing in the towel, nor faking.

Carpentier relates that he got his pilot's license after only two months apprenticeship. He was given a new Maurice Farman 130-horse power biplane and was employed in reconnoitering over Alsace.

One day he was assigned to patrol duty, and while he paced his "beat" high in the clouds a German aviator, or "aviatik" came into view.

"I immediately gave chase," he writes, but the Boche's machine was much faster than mine and—rue the day!—he out-distanced me. I can only describe the feeling by saying it was like going into the ring against a man many stones heavier than yourself, I have fought and whipped many adversaries under similar handicaps but, alas! I could do nothing."

During the chase, Carpentier's machine was hit twice by the German, who fired over a hundred shots at him, but he himself was untouched.

Georges has had many narrow escapes during the war but with one exception has come through unscathed.

On one occasion he relates his motor stopped dead while he was 1,800 metres (600 feet) above the earth.

"In all my ring battles," he writes, "I never was so near out mentally and physically, as then. There I hung suspended high in the clouds. There was an empty feeling in the pit of my stomach. And there was none of my seconds to toss up the sponge so I could sink away into sweet oblivion. Bombardier Wells, you remember, almost had me out once, but it was nothing compared with this."

"But I brushed the cobwebs away, spread my feet wide apart and hung on for the bell. By skillful manipulation of the levers, if I do say it myself, I managed to glide down. The Vosges country, though, is very rough and hilly, and I hit with a crash!"

"The shock of meeting the ground threw me headlong. I was stunned for a moment, but came round nicely long before the referee started counting, and when I took stock of myself in my corner, found I had a bad gash in the head and a sprained ankle. Quite wonderful, isn't it that I should escape so easily, when poor, brave Pegoud (famous French aviator) was killed?"

"I was found by some of my countrymen and taken to the hospital. I was only there a few weeks, and am now out and looking for another chance to sign up with one of the Boches, or a dozen for that matter."

"It is quite possible that by the time you receive this I shall have achieved my ambition, and really brought down a Boche aviatic."

Carpentier is of the opinion that the war is a lot nearer to an end than most people imagine. He compares the Germans to a boxer who piles up a big lead of points in the first ten rounds, only to be knocked out by one stiff punch in the eleventh.

It is not impossible that the young Frenchman had in mind the present Allied offensive when he prophesied that the Allies still packed a kick in one paw.

The part aviation is playing in the war is tremendous, he says.

"My American friends cannot imagine the grandeur, the magnificence of seeing a field of fifty soaring birds sail out into the sunlight bound for some hated camp of the Boches. No one can. I used to think a ring battle was the most grandly spectacular thing imaginable. But, pooh! it is nothing beside feeling yourself soaring in the clouds after a real enemy—not one whom you have knocked and you can help to his feet and shake hands."

"There is no handshaking in this ring!"

Rev. Bertrand L. Conway, C. S. P.,
of New York City, to Lecture
Here All Next Week.

LIST OF TOPICS ARE GIVEN

The list of lectures to be given at St. Mary's Catholic church next week by the Rev. Bertrand L. Conway, C. S. P. of New York City is as follows: Monday, "Is One Church as Good as Another?" Tuesday, "The Church and the Bible;" Wednesday, "The Papacy;" Thursday, "The Confession of Sins;" Friday, "The Lord's Supper;" Saturday, "The Sacrifice of the Mass;" Sunday, 10 a. m., "Prayer;" Sunday, 7:45 p. m., "Why I am a Catholic."

Though a comparatively young man, Father Conway has probably delivered discourses on Catholic doctrine before more Non-Catholics than any other priest in the country, his work having made his name familiar from coast to coast. His native brilliancy and his wide experience are particularly in evidence in his handling of the Question Box. His explanations are always to the point and always given in a manner that leaves no sting.

Non-Catholics will be made especially welcome at these lectures which are free. Those who would wish to hear the Catholic side of disputed question, as well as those whose reading and whose experience have perhaps given them strange notions of the beliefs and the practices in these times of religious unrest of the ancient church are particularly urged to place their queries in the Question Box provided for the purpose, at the door of the church. The opportunity is an unusual one. The lectures begin each evening at 7:45 p. m.

SAYS GERMANY FEARS STARVATION

British Press Displays Reports

Shortage Exists

PEACE OFFERS DISCOUNTED

BY ED L. KEEN
(Copyright 1915 by U. P.)

London, Oct. 30.—Fear of starvation here today is producing a very serious situation in Germany.

Amsterdam and Copenhagen reports of the food shortage declared to exist already throughout the Fatherland are prominently displayed in the press. American dispatches concerning German peace overtures which are attributed to economic pressure also are given much prominence.

The newspapers are unanimous that the allies should ignore all Tonic peace offers despite the gravity of the Balkan situation and the probability that the Austro-Germans will reach Constantinople.

GREAT PROBLEM FACES INDIANA

Dr. Bliss Declares That Feeble-mindedness is Become Menace And Offers a Solution

ADVISES FARM COLONY PLAN

Segregation is Advocated in Address at Richmond—Says it is Business Proposition

(By United Press.)

Richmond, Ind., Oct. 30.—The rapid growth in number of the feeble-minded in Indiana and every other state was this afternoon described by Dr. George C. Bliss as the "most momentous problem" that confronts the citizens. Dr. Bliss then outlined a way in which, he said: Indiana could solve this problem and become a world leader among commonwealths in so doing. Segregation of the feeble minded was advocated by Dr. Bliss.

Dr. Bliss is superintendent of the Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth at Fort Wayne. He spoke this afternoon before the Children's bureau of Indiana, which met here as a preliminary to the state conference of Charities and Corrections, which open tonight.

"I should be faithless to my duty if I did not point out to you the great menace to this state of leaving the 4,500 feeble-minded, now at large in our communities, to their own devices, to marry and reproduce their kind, to fill the police court of our larger cities and towns, to augment the supply of prostitutes and paupers, as well as the other forms of vice to which a degenerate will supply in turn," said Dr. Bliss.

Dr. Bliss said that in 1914 the 12,708 inmates of our state institutions cost the state in round numbers $2,500,000 in maintenance alone of the nineteen public institutions. He emphasized the fact that in 1890 there were only 5,406 inmates and that the cost then was only $850,000.

"He is a bold man indeed who would suggest a yet further expenditure of money towards the same end," said Dr. Bliss, "Let no citizen of the state of Indiana think for one moment that he is not already paying the bills of this most unfortunate class; if not in an institution like that at Fort Wayne, then in the police courts, in the circuit courts, in the jails, on the pauper lists of our towns and cities, to say nothing of the vice and almost unbelievable debauchery fostered by some of these people now at large. But even this bill that you are paying great as it is, is comparatively small compared to the legacy of crime, pauperism and vice you are leaving to your children and grand children, if something is not done to check the growth of this burden."

"Owing to their lack of control, habits and manner of life, the number of feeble minded is increasing at a faster ratio than the normal increase of population."

Dr. Bliss then gave his solution—the segregation of this class from society.

Sterilization, he said, is for the present, at least, not a practical plan, due to "the conscientious opposition by some people and because our civilization is not yet advanced enough to have the mass of the people educated to so radical measure." Laws will not prevent this class from marrying and reproducing, he said, unless better enforced. But segregation is already costing the state $2,500,000 said Dr. Bliss; and the cost is rapidly increasing. "Shall we continue this indefinitely?" he asked.

"Suppose that as a business proposition the tax payers and our legislature could be made to see that by an immediate expenditure of say $5,000,000 or even $10,000,000 the state taxes could in 50 years be reduced one-half. Don't you think they would do it. Yet this can be done."

Seventy-five per cent of the feeble minded are defective because their parents were feeble minded, he said. If all reproductions by defectives were stopped, as segregation would stop it, then in 50 years there would be left only 25 per cent of feeble-minded due to other causes. The Ft. Wayne man then said the syphilis and alcohol account for a large part of the remaining 25 per cent and that this number could be considerably reduced.

Dr. Bliss then advocated the farm colony plan, whereby, he said, the state charges would in a measure support themselves and live under most favorable conditions.

"Why should not Indiana be a leader in this kind of work?" concluded Dr. Bliss, "and show the world how to solve this most momentous problem that now confronts the citizens of this and every other state."

C. M. GEORGE HELPS NOMINATE WOMAN

Superintendent of Schools Here a Member of Committee Picking
Anna Wilson for Presidency.

STATE TEACHERS' MEETING

C. M. George, county superintendent of the schools in Rush county, was a member of the nominating committee of the State Teachers' association, in session in Indianapolis, which late Friday afternoon recommended Miss Anna Wilson, principal of the Crawfordville high school, for the presidency of the association. It was expected the teachers in session at the Indiana state fair ground coliseum this morning would confirm the recommendations of the nominating committee.

The committee was confronted with a hard battle. There was much sentiment for a woman president this time and the committee evidently decided finally that the sentiment could not be discounted. Miss Wilson is known to Rushville school teachers as well as to Rushville persons who attended Wabash college at Crawfordville. Her high school has been designated by the United States department of education as a model one. Superintendent George represented this congressional district on the nominating committee.

GANZ WILL TEACH CARTHAGE GIRL

Miss Mary Blue, Who Formerly

Dr. Frank Damrosch.

Miss Mary Blue, a former Carthage young lady and daughter of Miss Flora Blue, of Dayton, O., is in New York City where she will spend a year at the Institute of Musical Art, having as her teacher in piano the celebrated artist, Rudolph Ganz, says the Carthage Citizen.

Miss Blue passed her entrance examinations very successfully, playing for Dr. Frank Damrosch who expressed himself as very much pleased with her work and at once placed her among the twelve pupils who will have the privilege of studying with Mr. Ganz this year. In her theoretical studies Miss Blue was placed in the classes of Dr. Goetelius, who is considered one of the greatest musical theorists of the day and who is the author of numerous text books on harmony and counterpoint.

Miss Blue was recently engaged to play at a concert to be given at the Waldorf-Astoria under the auspices of the Ohio society.
